

Magical journey with a local touch

LEADING tour operator Incredible Indian Tours has launched its newest package – Essence of India and Pushkar Camel Fair.

It promises to take travellers on the ultimate journey of India through the eyes of a local, unveil secrets of the real India and showcase the best of the exotic, intriguing country.

From $2690 per person twin share, this 23-day package will take guests on a magical journey through 11 of India's well known and hidden cities. Guests will explore the heart and soul of India by visiting incredible destinations such as the old Delhi spice market and Chandni Chowk, the busiest marketplace in Asia and the iconic and wondrous Taj.

The package includes all entrance fees, 18 nights in hotel accommodation, three evenings on an overnight train, one night camping in the desert, four dinners, 10 breakfasts and two lunches. The tour begins in Delhi on Thursday October 15 and finishes in Mumbai on Friday November 6.

Founder and director of Incredible Indian Tours Debbie Kindness has more than seven years' experience leading tours through India and Nepal, and said that her relationships with the people of India allowed her to provide a unique and personalised experience.

For more information, phone 1300 443 475 or visit www.incredibleindiantours.com