This is a sensational non-trekking adventure into Nepal. A land of mystery and tradition, mystics and mountains, rivers and jungles. Join us as we explore the ancient towns and villages of the Kathmandu valley, spend time in hilltop villages with magical mountain views at dawn. Safari through the jungle searching for rhinos and tigers. Raft the white-waters of primordial rivers. Chill out in laid back Pokhara surrounded by the most spectacular lakes and mountains. Take a mountain flight into the heart of the majestic Himalayan ranges, and spend a couple of days in the spectacular Mustang region. Above and beyond all of this, you will experience a unique culture with some of the friendliest people you will ever meet.

ITINERARY

Day 1 Kathmandu (Bhaktapur)

Arrival Day. We meet at 6pm to have a brief chat about our tour before heading out to dinner in Bhaktapur.

Day 2 Bhaktapur (B)

We spend the day sightseeing in the magical ancient town and World Heritage sites of Bhaktapur and the temple of Changu Narayan.

Day 3 Nuwakot (BLD)

We travel 3-4 hours on a windy, bumpy but very scenic road by private bus today to Nuwakot in the hills northwest of the Kathmandu Valley.

Day 4 Nuwakot (BLD)

Awaken to majestic Himalayan views before a day in and around Nuwakot to explore the village and traditional way of life in this part of Nepal.

Day 5 Chitwan National Park (BLD)

We experience one of the most popular adventures in Nepal - rafting down the Trisuli river - for a few hours before travelling on to Chitwan National Park.

Day 6 Chitwan National Park (BLD)

An amazing day of exploration await you as we journey through the jungle by jeep, witness a cultural show, canoe down the river and visit an elephant breeding centre.

Day 7 Bandipur (BLD)

We travel towards Pokhara today stopping for a couple of nights at the charming village of Bandipur, stunningly situated on a ridge with magnificent mountain views.

Days 8-9 Pokhara (B)

We arrive in Pokhara today where you will have the opportunity to explore the town, shops or visit some of the sights - Temples, Tibetan settlements and hilltop viewpoints.

Day 10 Kagbeni (B D)

A morning mountain flight to Jomsom drops us in the high into the Mustang region on the Annapurna trekking circuit. We take a jeep up the Kali Gandaki gorge (the deepest in the world) to the ancient and charming Tibetan village of Kagbeni where we spend the evening.

Day 11 Kagbeni (B D)

An optional trek today for those more adventurous to the small settlement of Lupra which has one of the only Bon Monasteries in this region. Alternatively, we take a jeep up to Muktinath and explore this pilgrimate place important for both Hindus and Buddhists. From Muktinath, weather permitting, you can see Mt Dhaulagiri, some of the Annapurna range and the Thorongla Pass.

Day 12 Pokhara (B)

We take another exhilarating mountain flight back to Pokhara where you have the rest of the day to relax, do more walks or take a boat out on the lake.

Days 13-14 Kathmandu (B)

A short flight brings us back to Kathmandu where we have the time to explore the sights of this exciting capital city. Durbar Square, Boudnath, Pashupatinath and Swayambhunath are all on the agenda and the tourist centre of Thamel offers a host of shopping and culinary adventures.

Day 15 Departure Day (B)

There are no organised activities today. You are free to depart at any time.
